

2014 YOUNG MEN'S CONFERENCE

(ages 10-20)

Brothers in the Community Making it Happen...

Get On the Bus!

Saturday, April 5
10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

West Las Vegas Arts Center
947 W. Lake Mead Blvd.

Admission is free, but advance registration is required.
Call (702) 229-4800 to register.

This is a conference event for young men ages 10-20 will give the fundamentals of youth development through public conversations. The conference goal is to discover new methods of improving their lives through diverse mentoring, small session dialogues and life-skill interventions led by volunteer community leaders. The young men will learn to find alternative routes when faced with road blocks, break down barriers, accept responsibility, take action and follow through!

The event is co-sponsored by the Las Vegas-Clark County Library District, Clark County Juvenile Detention Alternative Initiative Program and Help of Southern Nevada.
